Construction Started On Recreation Center

WORK STARTS ON BUILDING BUFF COURT

Recreation Center Is Planned By Coach Baggett

HOUSE 44 BOYS

Native Stone and Petrified Woods To Be Used

Construction work was started yesterday on the recreational center for men on the W. T. campus which will probably be named Buffalo Court. Stone and petrified wood have been assembled for the construction during the past weeks awaiting the final action of the Board of Regents, and fuller development of the plans.

Coach Al Baggett proposed the plans several weeks ago, and the enterprise is being sponsored by the Canyon Athletic Club which is accepting donations on the construction.

Coach Baggett, in his plans for the building, has worked out a practical, self-sustaining, and beautiful structure. Native stone is to be used throughout, including different colored flint rock, and petrified wood. The wood is to be used for the facing of the building.

The structure is to be a low, rambling, ranchlike type of architecture. The walls are to be unfinished on the inside, with concrete ground floors, the woodwork to be finished in a rough stained effect. The roof is to be of plain gable style, with board shingles laid in rough zig-zag lines.

The handball court will be finished with a fine cement wall, and should be, Baggett says, one of the most modern and probably the finest in the South. The plans are to heat the hall with gas, since the cost of steam is at present prohibitive. This feature could be added at a later date, however.

The furniture of the building will be of home-made type, carrying out the rustic effect. The chairs, bedsteads, tables, and dressers are to be constructed of heavy lumber.

In conjunction with this building, plans for crushed rock walks, and a Desert Garden, 122 feet long and 44 feet wide, with grass, shrubbery, and hedges are being made, and a rock fountain with colored light effect to be placed in the middle of the lawn.

It is believed that the project will be a means of increasing interest in athletics, by providing

CATTLE BUYING PROGRAM IS RESUMED IN COUNTY

Water Rate Again Cut by the City

30% Discount Allowed to Keep Trees Alive in Canyon

Water rates were lowered again in Canyon yesterday with the announcement that August bills would carry a discount of 30% instead of 20% as announced the first of the month. The additional discount applies to the bills which will be mailed to customers on the first of September.

"The city makes this reduction in order that citizens will save their lawns, trees and shrubbery," stated Harvey Cash.

In reading the meters this month it was found that in spite of the reduction announced the first of August, less water was being used by most citizens during the month than during July. The large water bills for July had caused people to economize too greatly in the use of water during the past month in spite of the reduced rates.

With the continued drought and excessive heat, lawns and trees have shown the effect of the reduced amount of water which has been used the past month.

The minimum rate for water will be maintained at $1.50, stated Mr. Cash.

Goodnight Trail Work Continued After a Shut Down

Work was resumed on the caliche work of the Goodnight Trail Monday after a complete shut down last week.

Enough money was received by the relief office to carry on the work for a week, but unless additional funds are received, it is likely that the work will have to be discontinued again next week.

It will require about three weeks more to complete the caliche work. The hot dry weather has been very hard on the caliche base, and before the topping is done, the greater part of the Trail will have to be rebuilt.

No word has been received as to the time the topping contract will be let.

Miss Orlena Bandy, of Cleburne, is visiting friends and relatives here, this week.

T. F. Reid is visiting his daughter, Mrs. G. H. Guinn, of Hereford.

Last Special Offer Made For Primary Week

The last special subscription offer before winter Bargain Days is offered for the Second Primary on Saturday, August 25th.

Throughout this week, a special rate of $1.00 per year will be made on Canyon News subscriptions. No more reductions in rates will be given before the annual bargain days, which are in combination with daily newspapers.

Subscribers are invited to take advantage of this special subscription offer made for the primary period.

Candidates Talk Before a Large Crowd Saturday

A large crowd gathered Saturday night to hear the candidates and their representatives speak at the court house. Owing to the rush of commencement activities it was impossible for the Buffalo Band to play for this gathering.

Clyde Warwick presided and introduced the following:

A. B. Holt and Felix Neff, candidates for County and District Clerk.

Henry S. Bishop and E. C. Nelson, candidates for District Judge.

Chas. C. Gibson of Amarillo for Judge H. S. Lattimore.

F. M. Bralley, Jr., for William McCraw, and Clyde Warwick for Walter Woodward.

Herman Wright for James V. Allred and G. L. Stanley for Tom F. Hunter.

Miss Evelyn Siedenstrang of Amarillo visited last week with Mrs. Levi Cole.

RESTRICTION OF 300 CATTLE IN EIGHT DAYS

Clyde McElroy Named As Appraiser In Four Counties

NEW QUOTA IS SET

Deaf Smith, Oldham and Potter Added To Randall

Cattle buying by the government was resumed in Randall county yesterday and today on a quota allotment basis, and has been authorized to continue in the county two days out of eight, with a maximum of 150 head for each day's buying.

The new program calls for a four county set-up composed of Randall, Deaf Smith, Oldham and Potter, with one appraiser and one veterinarian doing the work over the four counties. Clyde McElroy was appointed appraiser for the four counties.

The work in each county is under the supervision of a Drouth Relief Director, who is usually the County Agent.

Under the present arrangement, the government will buy 150 daily. If the county which is being worked fails to have its 150 head ready for inspection, the appraiser and veterinarian are required to pass on to the next county and complete the number.

About 1500 head have been listed for sale in Randall county, or a sufficient number for six weeks buying. This makes it impossible for the farmers to dispose of their cattle as rapidly as they would like under drouth conditions, but it is the best arrangement that could be secured for the county.

In order to secure the 150 daily during the two purchasing days, it

High school students will register on Friday afternoon, August 31 and Saturday morning, Sept. 1st.

Elementary school students will register Saturday morning, Sept. 1. All new students, both high school and elementary school, are requested to register on Friday afternoon.

Mr. Carruth has been attending Leland Stanford University during the summer, and will return home with his family in a few days.

Men Released By Officers Held on Murder Questioning

The two men picked up last week in Canyon were released on Thursday afternoon by Sheriff Bob Barnett to the sheriff from Paducah. The men were held regarding the murder at Shamrock, but after being closely questioned, and taken to Shamrock for examination, no connection was established between the men and the murder case.

However, the men were wanted at Paducah on other charges. One had served a penitentiary sentence.

The bride of one man was not charged in any of the cases, but was allowed to accompany them to Paducah.

Company F. Returns From Annual Camp Held At Palacios

Company F returned Sunday from the annual encampment of the Texas National Guard at Camp Palacios.

The camp was pronounced to be one of the best the company has ever attended by Captain William E. Lockhart, commander of the local unit. There was very little sickness among the men, and great interest was shown in all phases of the camp life.

Mrs. Nell Braboy, of Wellington, is visiting Mrs. A. E. Terry.

SHORT BALLOT FOR PRIMARY OF THIS WEEK

Only Seven Races To Be Decided in This Election

ONE LOCAL RACE

One Voting Box Opened For Voters In Canyon

The second primary will be held in Texas Saturday of this week. While more than a million ballots were cast in the July primary, it is predicted that the number will be less in the second primary unless a great movement is made during the final days to induce voters to take the time to go to the polls.

Only one voting box will be maintained in Canyon for the second primary the one at the court house. Owing to the short ballot, it is believed that the counting of the ballots will be completed in a very short time after the polls are closed. Voters are requested to go to the polls as early as possible Saturday in order to facilitate the counting.

Only seven races are on the ballots of Randall county. Of this number, only one is for a county office, and one for a district office. The other five are for state offices.

The News will maintain a bulletin board for the county returns, but will be unable to receive state returns owing to the ruling of the Texas Election Bureau that its returns may be used only for publication.

The following names will appear on the official ballot:

For Governor: James V. Allred and Tom F. Hunter.

For Lieutenant Governor: Joe M. Moore and Walter F. Woodul.

For Railroad Commissioner: John Pundt and Lon A. Smith.

For Associate Justice of Supreme Court: John H. Sharp and H. S. Lattimore.

For District Judge: E. C. Nelson and Henry S. Bishop.

For County and District Clerk: Felix Neff and A. B. Holt.

For Attorney General: Walter Woodward and William McCraw.

Election judges are urged to telephone The News as soon as the returns are completed for their box, or to bring them to Canyon. The county should be completed by 9:30 o'clock.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Tom Davies was returned from the hospital in Amarillo Tuesday where he has been for treatment for some time. He has improved somewhat during the past two weeks.

D. A. Shirley, R. P. Jarrett, Lee Johnson, and S. H. Condon were guests of Floyd Studer for fishing at Studer Lake, over the week end.

The training camp will continue daily until the opening of school work on the 3rd of September.

Hunter Talk at 8:00 Tonight on Court House Lawn

Max Boyer of Perryton will speak at 8:00 o'clock tonight on the court house lawn for the candidacy of Tom F. Hunter, candidate for Governor of Texas. Mr. Boyer is a well known lawyer of the north plains, and has been devoting all of his time the past two weeks in campaigning for Mr. Hunter.

Mr. Boyer carries a loud speaker, and his talk will be easily heard by all those who will come to the court house square tonight.

2.25 Inches of Rain Fall In Two Days

1.20 In. On Tuesday and 1.05 Falls Here Yesterday

Canyon has received 2.25 inches of rain since Tuesday evening. This is the largest amount of rain that has fallen in Canyon since March 25th.

The rain started to fall at 7:30 Tuesday evening, continuing at intermittent periods through the night until 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The total rain for the night was 1.20 inches.

According to reports from over the country, a heavier rain fell three miles south of Canyon, and a little more fell in the Umbarger section. The southeast section of the county received considerably less, while the northern section received about half an inch.

The rain of last night started at 6:45, continuing for more than an hour. Another good rain fell at 11 o'clock.

Randall county received more rain Tuesday night than any territory in the Panhandle. According to reports this morning, the rain of last night was more general, and will probably cover a greater portion of Northwest Texas.

The rains will save thousands of acres of row crop which were about burned up by the continued drouth. While only a small part of this crop will make grain unless frost is abnormally late, plenty of rough feed will be provided for stock. The rain will start the grass, which was almost burned to a crisp.

The greatest value to the farmers is the fact that wheat may now be planted. The wheat pasture will carry many farmers and dairymen through the winter.

THE SECOND PRIMARY

Such a campaign! Such a campaign!

Such childish arguments, charges and counter-charges!

Such a mass of inconsequential rubbish that has been dragged into the run-off campaign for Governor.

While the candidates fly at each other's throats, hurling charges, threats, and bundles of nonsense, the welfare of the state is forgotten, both by the candidates and by the voters.

"Pour it on, Jimmie," "Pour it on Tom," are the most important cries of the voters.

"You did," cries one; "No, you did," yells back the other.

A bitter campaign of prejudice has been launched against one of the candidates for Governor because he is criminal to the extent of having been a good lawyer, and having saved a little property for himself.

"You're rich," cries one; "You admit being poor, but where is all the money coming from for this huge campaign," cries the other.

One is too short and fat; the other is a style plate.

Both charge the other with representing the "interests" of the state, while both affirm that he alone is the voice of the great common herd.

Both sought the following of all of the defeated candidates for Governor in the first primary; but since all of them came into one camp, the charge of conspiracy is raised by the disappointed one.

One trailed on the coat tail of Jim Ferguson in the Attorney General's race four years ago, and was elected; but now the endorsement of Jim is high treason and for the purpose of overthrowing the state government and establishing a tyranny worse than Huey Long or Hitler.

The sales tax is the far-flung battle cry; but both candidates are either kidding themselves, or trying to fool the people. The legislature has the say so about what taxes shall or shall not be passed. The last three governors have failed miserably in trying to cram their pet projects through the legislature. And let it be known here and now by one and by all—Jones, the old reliable taxpayer, will still continue to foot the bill in one way or another, regardless how the bill may be collected, just so long as the state continues to function.

One candidate by insinuation has accused the legislature of being under the thumb of the lobbyists; the other relies upon reasonable direction and encouragement to get over his reform program.

Both have suddenly become alarmed over horse race betting, after Clint Small made it a popular battle cry. But the open saloon, 14,000 in number, continue to operate in spite of the Texas prohibition law, and in spite of the fact that one candidate is attempting to defend his stand as a prohibitionist; while the other ignores the prohibition question except demanding that all law be enforced.

One candidate charges the other as a rich man, having many oil wells; while the other shows pictures of the fine house the other moved from into the little rented house on the dusty street for campaign purposes. Both are forgetful of the fact that not all rich men are diabolical crooks; and neither is it true that all poor men are supremely honest.

If all we hear about these fellows are half true, let's send for Alfalfa Bill or Doc Brinkley and have a respectable government in Texas for the next two years.

Yes, we have a great mass of rubbish to clear away before the voter can get down to the real merits of these men. The hose should be turned on and the mud washed off just so the voters might see what manner of men these candidates for Governor really are.

We are of the private opinion that neither is the great monster which he is being painted by the opposition.

The tax payers have been crying out against the injustice of the heavy property tax; but when it is proposed to abolish this tax, one candidate cries out that it would benefit the rich man, forgetting that it is the poor man who always pays more than his just share of property tax, since the tax collector can uncover the little fellow's property, while the rich man is able to hide his holdings.

We have been crying out for a more economical government, and a more efficient government; yet the candidate who proposes reforms with the idea of making the state government more efficient is declared to be seeking the seat of a dictator.

Both men have made a fair presentation on the question of education.

Both men are declared by their friends and neighbors to be honest; but in judging their ability to do things for the people, these same friends and neighbors placed one candidate above the other.

One candidate is primarily a showman, with the ability to entertain the crowd; the other has long been a student of governmental problems, and wishes for the opportunity to put his theories into practice.

The News stated two weeks ago that we believed Tom Hunter was the better prepared and qualified man to serve as Governor; after hearing both candidates and reading all of the statements that have been put out, we are still of this opinion.

The main thing is, go to the polls and vote next Saturday.

Then we come to one of the most important races in the state, but regarding which little is said; that of Lieutenant Governor. Senator Walter Woodul of Houston lead in the first primary by an overwhelming vote. Senator Joe Moore was second, and last week issued a statement withdrawing from the race until Jim Ferguson added Woodul to his preference list. According to Moore, this makes Ferguson an issue in this race. Moore saw that he would be hopelessly defeated, and hopes to fool the voters by attempting to inject this issue. Woodul was endorsed by Ferguson without his knowledge or consent and will be elected in spite of the endorsement of Jim Ferguson; but this endorsement is not a handicap in a two-man race.

The only race in which Fergusonism is a real outstanding issue is that of Railroad Commissioner. John Pundt is recognized as the Ferguson candidate who succeeded in making the second primary. He opposes Lon A. Smith. The News will support Smith, as the lesser of two evils.

John Sharp and Hal Lattimore are the two candidates for the Supreme Court. Judge Sharp is the more able lawyer of the two. In this instance, Jim Ferguson is fighting Sharp.

Strange as it may seem, Ferguson has expressed no choice in the Attorney General's race. Walter C. Woodward of Coleman, and William McCraw of Dallas are the candidates. The News prefers Woodward. He has been the friend of West Texas throughout his legislative career.

The only charge brought against him is the fact that he has represented some utilities. Strange as it may seem, every young lawyer strives to be good enough lawyer to be employed by the big corporations, which will hire only the best. But when a lawyer is good enough lawyer to be recognized by the big companies, he becomes unfit for a public servant. In other words, does the public prefer the lawyer candidate who has shown no particular ability to the one who has made a decided success? Does the public approve of the failure for public office more than the successful man? If so, it is no wonder that the public charges that our public servants are inefficient and that our government is shot through with extravagance and graft. Nevertheless, the public fails to assume its responsibility in having named the unsuccessful candidate instead of selecting the successful candidate. We are old-fashioned enough to believe that no public official will be a success unless he has been a success in private life; that the more successful a man has been in private, the more successful he will become in public life. This goes for all candidates for public office.

Go to the polls Saturday and vote. If the people refuse to take an interest in the public's business, how may they expect Democracy to long exist?

Crime costs every citizen of Texas about 30 cents per day. Crime costs more than all of the other agencies of government combined. It is too great a load on the taxpayers to have to dig up 30 cents every day to pay for the destructive forces at large in the land. The taxpayer would rather see the money diverted to constructive measures. The public should demand that the way of the criminal should be made harder; that the way of the law abiding citizen be made easier.

This is the last issue of The News in which the proposed constitutional amendments will be printed. The amendments will be submitted to the voters in the general election in November. The readers should study the wording of the amendments now in order to be familiar with them when they are discussed just before the general election.

A lot of wise guys have been predicting rain, but so far all have missed it. We now venture our guess that it is going to rain some of these days; and that every day which passes brings us just one day nearer that rain.

INTEGRITY

WILLIAM McCRAW is the type of man that Texans can place faith and confidence in with perfect assurance of his worth. He is the only man that the people of his county ever elected to three terms as their District Attorney. He was never defeated. No class, cult or clique ever influenced him in public service. There were no back doors to his office as District Attorney—he could not be "reached."

The unexpected audit of the books of all Dallas County officials found his books "correct"—thousands of dollars of the people's money had been honestly handled.

All this insures that Texas will combine unquestioned and proven integrity with demonstrated ability.

CANDIDATE FOR

County and District Clerk

Due to the short time between the first and second primaries, it has been impossible for me to see all of the voters of Randall County and talk with them regarding my candidacy for County and District Clerk. I greatly regret having missed any voter, but trust that each will take this as a personal invitation for your support on Saturday.

I hope that all who voted in the first primary will go to the polls again next Saturday and cast their ballots. I am very grateful to those who supported me at that time, and trust that you will see fit to vote for me in the second primary.

For those who decided to support another candidate in the first primary, I have only the kindest feeling, but will appreciate it very much if you have thoroughly investigated my qualifications and decide to support me on August 25.

I have made no campaign pledges or promises, excepting that I shall devote my entire time to the duties of the office, and if you select me on next Saturday, I will make you as good a Clerk as within my power lies. I have had ample business training and schooling for this important office, and know that if I am elected the voters will have no cause to regret their choice.

Last Summer Play-Night Held Last Friday Night

Friday evening the football field presented a colorful scene of gaiety and action when a large group of W. T. students held their weekly play night.

Ping-pong, croquet, horse-shoe pitching, volley ball, and baseball were the games played, giant volleyball proving to be the evening's most popular game.

Just off the field a neat row of tents could be seen, where Mr. Phillips explained the equipment and procedures of camp life of the returned educational tourists.

The big lights above illuminated the scene, bringing into contrast the brilliant colors—the dark green grass, the blue sky, and the gayly colored dresses of the girls. It was a picture of summer time enjoyment not soon to be forgotten.

Optional Gas Rate Will Prove Benefit to Users in Canyon

Some citizens of Canyon have misunderstood the optional gas rate agreement which was approved at the last meeting of the City Commission. The optional rate provides two methods of figuring gas at the end of the year—the new rate, and the old published rate. If the user has not benefited by the new rate, his entire bill will not be more than the present published rate. However, it is estimated that practically all users of gas will greatly benefit by the new rate, especially those using a quantity of gas.

The City Commission wrote a new provision into the contract providing for $1.50 for the first 2,000 feet.

Wichita Falls Man Talks In Favor of Hunter

The high point in the final week's campaign for Tom F. Hunter in the Panhandle was the large rally held in Amarillo Tuesday night.

Judge John C. Kay of Wichita Falls and H. J. "Jack" Adkins, widely known Amarillo attorney, spoke. Judge Kay told the audience what he knew of the personal life of Tom Hunter, and of the respect given him by his home people. He said that the people of Wichita Falls knew Hunter to be honest and sincere in every respect.

Adkins discussed the issues in the present campaign, and pointed to instances where the opposition to Mr. Hunter had attempted to cloud the real issues through misrepresentation and mis-statement of facts.

A number of rallies are being held in the Panhandle towns this week by supporters of Hunter, including Shamrock, Clarendon, Miami, Memphis, Silverton, Tulla, Dimmitt, Hereford, Canyon, Panhandle, and several other points.

"In the final effort of grasping at straws, when they feel themselves slipping, the opposition to Tom Hunter are making all kinds of baseless charges," Fred M. Seale, Panhandle campaign manager for Hunter, said today. "One example of that was brought out Sunday when charges were made that one of Mr. Hunter's campaign workers, a former relief employee, was responsible for the treatment of the Panhandle on relief in general."

"This is just another example of such baseless and misleading claims. For weeks and months we have heard the claim that Lawrence Westbrook and Harry L. Hopkins were responsible for the attitude toward the Panhandle in relief matters. But here in the heat of the campaign when Alfred and his group are drawing on their imagination for charges, they claim that one man, although he has not been connected with relief headquarters for months, is responsible for the condition just because this man is working for Tom Hunter."

During the time in which he has not been connected with the relief commission in any respect the charges were made in a bitter fashion against Westbrook and Hopkins.

"We want to warn the people of this section to beware of any last minute charges against Mr. Hunter, because they will all be baseless and without true foundation."

Native Texan Escapes Heat With Byrd in Little America

Joe Hill Jr., son of President J. A. Hill of West Texas State Teachers College, today (August 24) celebrates his twenty-first birthday in Little America, the Byrd Antarctic Expedition base on the ice barrier near the South Pole. It is his first birthday away from home.

Despite the fact that Joe is one year older today, he is still the youngest person in Antarctica. He was selected from among scores of applicants by Admiral Byrd because of his cheerful personality and his ability to make mechanical gadgets behave. Experience piloting tractors through West Texas wheat fields helped qualify Joe for his place in the expedition's tractor division.

A student in the University of Texas where he has been preparing for aeronautical engineering, Hill is thoroughly enjoying his respite from classroom work, according to reports reaching this country via the weekly Byrd broadcasts, heard Wednesdays, 8-8:30 p. m., over the Columbia network.

Although he is the youngest member of the Byrd Expedition, Hill is an experienced mechanic, having built dozens of airplane models, the largest having a wing spread of 18 feet. In addition, a racing car, assembled from junked parts of several makes of automobiles, testifies to Hill's handiness with tools and blueprints.

Barney Ross Will Be Fighting Old Man Jinx and Jimmy McLarnin in the Long Island Bowl on Sept. 6

BY PHILIP MARTIN

THEY say that people who can't give "no" for an answer usually mess up their careers. This hasn't held true yet for a little fighter named Barney Ross. This doughty little miltman from Chicago's Ghetto is far from being the common garden variety of fight champ.

Far too frequent have been cases in which a boxer, after winning a title, refused to risk his crown against a competitor unless said competitor was getting on in years, was feeble, and had been knocked out by everybody and his cousin.

When a fight between Barney, already a lightweight champ, and formidable Jimmy McLarnin was proposed, Ross agreed almost blithely. McLarnin was favored to retain his title, but Barney gave the dope bucket a swift kick and displaced Jimmy on the welter throne.

McLarnin, who's no set-up in anyone's ring, wanted a return bout. Ross said "yes" just as nonchalantly as he had before. The scrap will take place Sept. 6. Just to show what a daring, unusual scrapper Ross is, consider the following facts:

Records show that all the last nine welterweight champs have lost their title the first time they defended it.

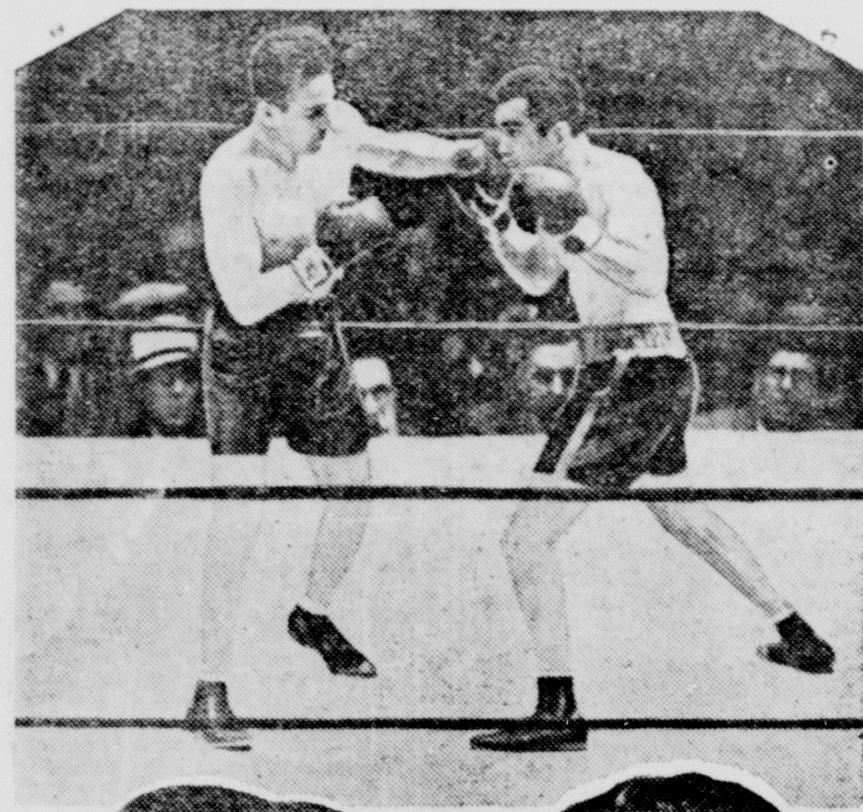

The fight will be held in The Bowl on Long Island, and tradition hath it that a champ can't win in the Bowl ring. Schmeling, Sharkey, and Carnera discovered this to their sorrow.

And, finally, McLarnin in recent years has acquired the habit of revenging himself upon anyone who licks him. Thus, Ray Miller, Sammy Mandell, and Billy Petrolle all defeated the Vancouver Irishman, to drop decisions to him in subsequent bouts.

If dope means anything, Barney has a tough chore ahead of him to retain his welter title.

THE lively ball is going to come in for a great deal of discussion during the December meetings of the big leagues. One of the strongest arguments against further use of the present sphere is that it actually endangers the lives of pitchers and infielders.

The long list of injuries suffered by major leaguers this year seems to indicate that this fear is well-founded.

Much blame for bad pitching and sloppy fielding is also laid at the door of the rabbit ball. A number of leading hurlers who owe their success to their curves claim they are unable to get a good grip on the sphere because of its smoothness.

Umpires have been instructed to remove the gloss by rubbing the ball around in dirt, but this procedure hasn't helped a great deal. Hurlers also contend they can get a firm hold on the horsehide only after it has been knocked around a good deal.

As the ball is unpopular with players, managers, and owners alike, some of the ginger will undoubtedly be removed from it during the winter session of the major league magnates.

Senator J. W. Reid and family left Saturday for a vacation trip to New Mexico.

Mrs. J. M. Wise and daughter, of Quitaque, are visiting Mrs. Wise's brother, A. E. Terry.

Farmers And Dairymen Approve FELIX NEFF

Candidate for

County and District Clerk

Farmer and Dairymen, friends of Felix Neff, take this opportunity to endorse his candidacy for County and District Clerk of Randall County.

Mr. Neff has engaged in the grain and feed business in Randall county, and furnished for us an exceptionally good market. His prices were always the best, his dealings were fair and square, his weights always accurate, and his conduct was always that of a gentleman. We could always count on him doing absolutely the right thing by us under all conditions.

We are taking this opportunity to tell the farmers in other sections of Randall county, and the voters living in Canyon and South Amarillo that Felix Neff is entirely qualified to fill the office he seeks. He needs the office, having lost his business through the depression and drouth; but we would not endorse him wholeheartedly unless we knew he was qualified in every respect to fill the office.

We earnestly trust that you will consider the qualifications of Felix Neff, and be able to give him your support and vote in the second primary on Saturday, August 25th.

(This advertisement paid for by Farmers and Dairymen Friends of Felix Neff.)

I APPRECIATE YOUR SUPPORT

I wish to thank the voters of Randall county who placed me in the lead in the first primary election, and ask the voters for their consideration in the second primary on August 25.

I feel amply qualified to fill the important office of County and District Clerk, and if elected I know that the taxpayers will have no cause to regret their choice.

I hope that every voter in Randall county will take this as a most personal invitation to give me your support in the primary election next Saturday. I have been unable to see many of the voters owing to the short time for this campaign, and regret missing any of you as I would like to discuss my candidacy with you personally.

I thank you for your past support, and hope to have your support next Saturday.

Nation's Youngest 'Grandma'?

Don't let the youthful appearance of Mrs. Verna Hoglund, right, fool you; three generations are represented in this picture. Mrs. Hoglund, 31, believed to be America's youngest grandmother, is pictured with her daughter, Mrs. Pauline Bell Boyle, 16, and 11-month-old William Boyle. Baby William's great-grandmother and his great-great-grandmother also are living. All the mothers in this remarkable family married at 14, 15, or 16 years of age.

Trophy Case, Senior Class Gift to W. T.

Friday, August 17, at class meeting, the seniors decided on the class gift for the college. The gift is to be a trophy case, with the class insignia upon it, to be placed in the Historical Society Museum. Serious consideration was given to several other things—a special trophy case for the chuck wagon display, a large bulletin board for the hall of the administration building, and a seat for the museum. The case was finally given the majority of votes, however.

The gift will be given to the college, today at chapel hour. The case will be completed and placed in the museum in the Fall.

Of course you have a right to voice your opinion. So has the fellow you condemn for voicing his.

Boy Scout Troop Visits Museum

Ten Boy Scouts of Mineral Wells, representing troops 71 and 73 of the Fort Worth Area Council, with their leader, John C. Doss, visited the Museum last Tuesday afternoon, August 14.

The boys had been selected thru a special contest, and were working out private projects while on the trip. They had no particular destination in mind, planning only on stopping before the end of the trip in Cima del Mundo, a Boy Scout camp near Las Vegas, New Mexico.

Mr. Studer conducted the boys a second time over the museum on Wednesday morning, and showed them his room, where the latest collections have been placed. He accompanied them to Tascosa that afternoon to study some ruins.

Their plans were to spend the night in the Palo Duro Canyon; they carried their own equipment with them.

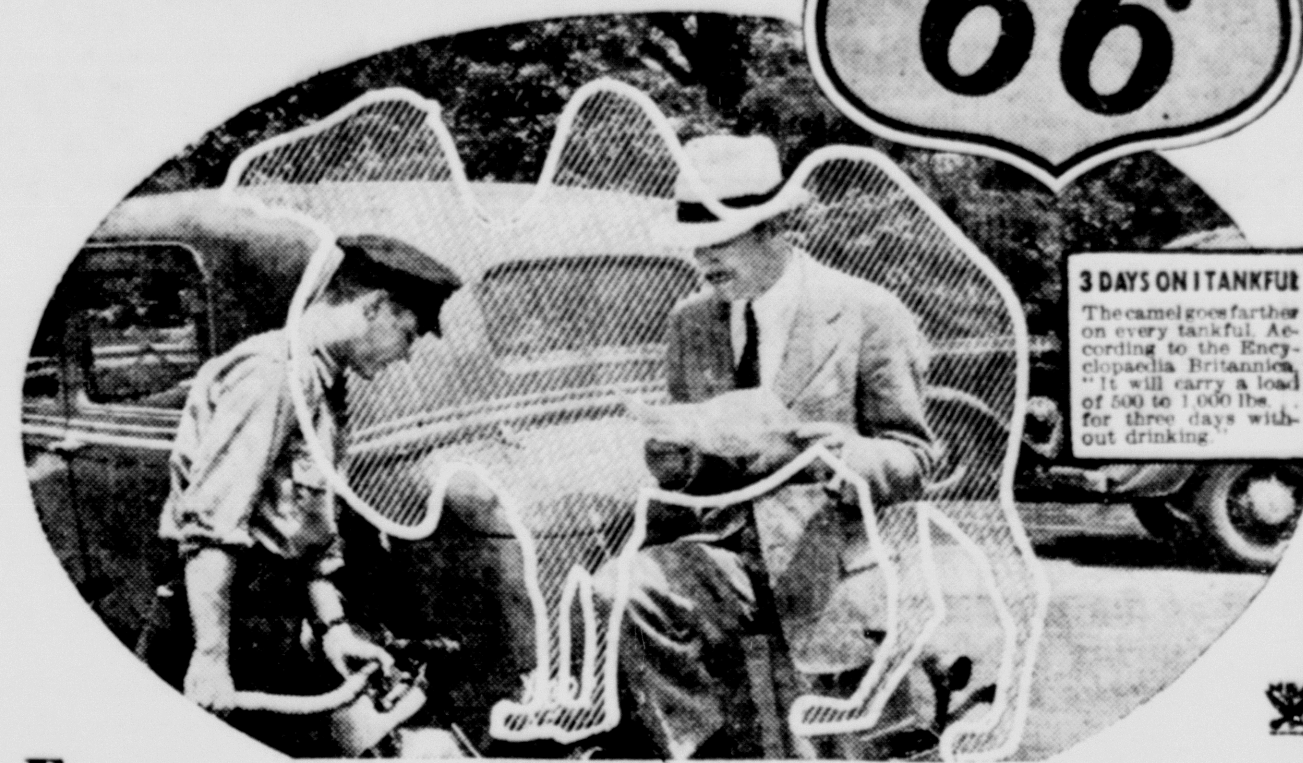

The boys were very interested in the museum and its relics, and especially in the discussions of Mr. Studer.

People who are stingy with thanks seldom ever have any opportunity to extend them.

Those who learn that there is fun in something besides pleasure have the best time out of life.

GOES FARTHER

ON EVERY TANKFUL

3 DAYS ON 1 TANKFUL
The camel goes farther on every tankful. According to the Encyclopedia Britannica, "It will carry a load of 500 to 1,000 lbs. for three days without drinking."

Every time you think of more miles per gallon, especially in hot Summer weather, think of Phillips 66... the greater gasoline.

It always delivers maximum power and miles on a minimum amount of fuel—every month in the year—because every month it is seasonally adjusted by the Phillips process of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY.

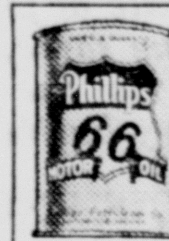

This makes it a superior Summer gasoline in Summer; a great cold-weather gas in Winter.

Phillips invented, developed, tested, and perfected this scientific seasonal change of gasoline specifications. CONTROLLED VOLATILITY is accepted, acclaimed... and imitated! So whenever you read or hear of climatic adjustment of gasoline at the refinery, remember that Phillips did it FIRST... seven years ago!

AUGUST GRAVITY 60.5° to 65.1°

That is why Phillips 66 today is a gasoline so outstanding that you quickly feel the difference. Even one trial tankful will prove its cooler anti-knock power; its pick-up, speed, and economy.

Hill and Sheffy Make Trip To Burkburnett

Dr. J. A. Hill and Professor L. F. Sheffy spent Tuesday and Wednesday of last week at Burkburnett, working in the interest of the Historical Society.

They stopped enroute at Clarendon, where they inspected a collection of historical relics and visited Mr. W. H. Patrick, a member of the Executive Board. They also stopped in Childress, where they interviewed several people, and obtained some material.

In Vernon the exhibit of birds and eggs, considered the best of its kind in Texas, was visited. In Wichita Falls, the two met several ex-students of this college, among whom was Guy Rogers, attorney.

In Burkburnett Mr. Sheffy completed some historical work, while Dr. Hill visited friends.

Both considered it a very profitable trip.

ENDORSE HIS CANDIDACY FOR County and District Clerk

A CANDIDATE WELL TRAINED

The office of County and District Clerk is one of the most important in Randall County, requiring good business training. Felix Neff has had the necessary training.

Hundreds of important instruments are entrusted to the care of the Clerk, requiring diligence on the part of the Clerk in the performance of duty. Felix Neff is qualified for this responsible position.

The title of property, and the correct recording of the same, depends very largely upon the accuracy of the Clerk. Felix Neff has had the necessary business experience for this work.

HAS ENGAGED IN BUSINESS

During the time he was able to operate his business, he furnished for the farmers of this section an adequate grain market. He would be running this business today had not the depression and drouth caught him like it has many other citizens.

He has shown his interest in the welfare of the farmers, dairymen and stockmen in the manner in which he conducted his feed and grain business; and they are grateful to Felix Neff for this past service and kindness.

ness; and they are grateful to Felix Neff for this past service and kindness.

He has not made trades, or attempted to make trades in order to secure votes in this campaign. If elected to this important office, he will not be dictated to by any one individual, class, or group of individuals who might seek to influence his action or the conduct of this office.

WILL DEVOTE ENTIRE TIME TO OFFICE

While he is seeking the office on the high plane of merit, preparation, and experience, we know that Felix Neff needs this office, and needs the salary connected with it as much as any other citizen in Randall County.

If elected to this office, Felix Neff will devote his entire time to the duties of the office; will use diligence for the welfare and economy of the taxpayers; will treat every citizen in a fair and square manner; will cheerfully serve all who have business to transact in this office.

YOUR VOTE GREATLY APPRECIATED

Educational Tour Ended Sunday With Return to Campus

Thirty members composing the party of the first West Texas State

Teachers College Educational Tour reached Canyon Sunday after a trip embracing five states and covering about 8,000 miles. The party which traveled in cars was in charge of Professor Frank R. Phillips. Mrs. Geraldine Green and Dr. A. M. Meyer were also teachers on the five-weeks trip which included visits to points of interest in Oklahoma, Colorado, including Rocky Mountain National Park, Wyoming, and a five-day stay in Yellowstone National Park, Idaho, Utah, and New Mexico.

Cattle Buying

will also be necessary for farmers to bunch their cattle in order that no time be lost by the buying crew in traveling over the county. Farmers who have listed their cattle will be notified in ample time to have their cattle ready for the inspection.

The next buying days for Randall county will be on August 31st and Sept. 1st.

The buying program was shut down for nearly two weeks in order to allow time for the canning plants to dispose of the surplus stock on hand.

Recreation Center

both a recreational center and a place for boys to stay. The structure will be large enough to accommodate forty-four boys. The upkeep and control will be completely under the supervision of Baggett. Rooms and personal laundry will be furnished at $5 per month for each man, to be paid for by work at the rate of 30 cents per hour. The work is to be done on the athletic field and campus.

District Court

paneled Grand Jurors for the August Term, A. D. 1934, Randall County, Texas, wish to make the following report:

The Grand Jury has been in session for seven days, during which time we have examined sixty nine witnesses, investigated twenty-one cases, and found eight true bills.

Generally speaking, we have found the great body of people of this county law-abiding and ready to aid in the enforcement of law. On the other hand, some seem to live under the impression that the enforcement of law should be left to the officials and they as citizens have no duty to perform.

The Grand Jury feels that special care should be given by all adult citizens to boys and girls who may be approaching the stage of delinquency. We feel that prevention is better than cure. Many crimes are caused by social carelessness and indifference. Law obedience must begin in the community and every citizen is responsible for his part.

With conditions as they now exist, this community as are others, is faced with the possibility of many crimes against property within the next few months. It behooves every person to exert every possible influence to prevent such an epidemic.

We, the Grand Jury, wish to express our approval of the work of the Sheriff and his force. We feel that he is doing all possible to render life and property safe. If the individual citizen will perform his duty as thoroughly as the officers are doing theirs, we will have a clean and wholesome community. We wish to commend all other county officials for their efficient work and interest in the welfare of the county.

The Grand Jury feels that parents should be careful as to where young boys and girls go for recreation. In this connection the towns and county may well look to the future and plan for wholesome activities if they wish to avoid many juvenile outbreaks.

We have completed our work, and ask that we be discharged for the term.

Respectfully submitted,
S. H. CONDRON,
Foreman of the Grand Jury.

Foster Removing Old Livery Stable For a Hay Barn

The old livery stable at the southwest corner of the square is being removed and taken by G. G. Foster to his farm one mile east of Wayside for a hay barn. The building is the oldest business house in Canyon.

The building has been used in recent years by R. E. Foster for a garage and filling station. The property was sold to G. G. Foster several weeks ago with the view of erecting a business block on the lots. Plans are not mature for any building at the present time, but Mr. Foster expects to soon make announcement of his future plans.

The old livery stable is one of the last business houses erected during the pioneer days of Canyon to be removed for more modern structures. The building is of sheet iron.
